BARKERS'
CORPORATE

Welcome

We know teamwork, in fact we wouldn't be where we are today without it. Teamwork is a distinctively Kiwi attribute and something we're pretty proud of, that's why Barkers is committed to outfitting businesses, sports teams and other organisations with the style and function of a carefully considered uniform. To be your best, you need to look your best too, so our team works with yours to tailor an approach to your unique environment and needs.

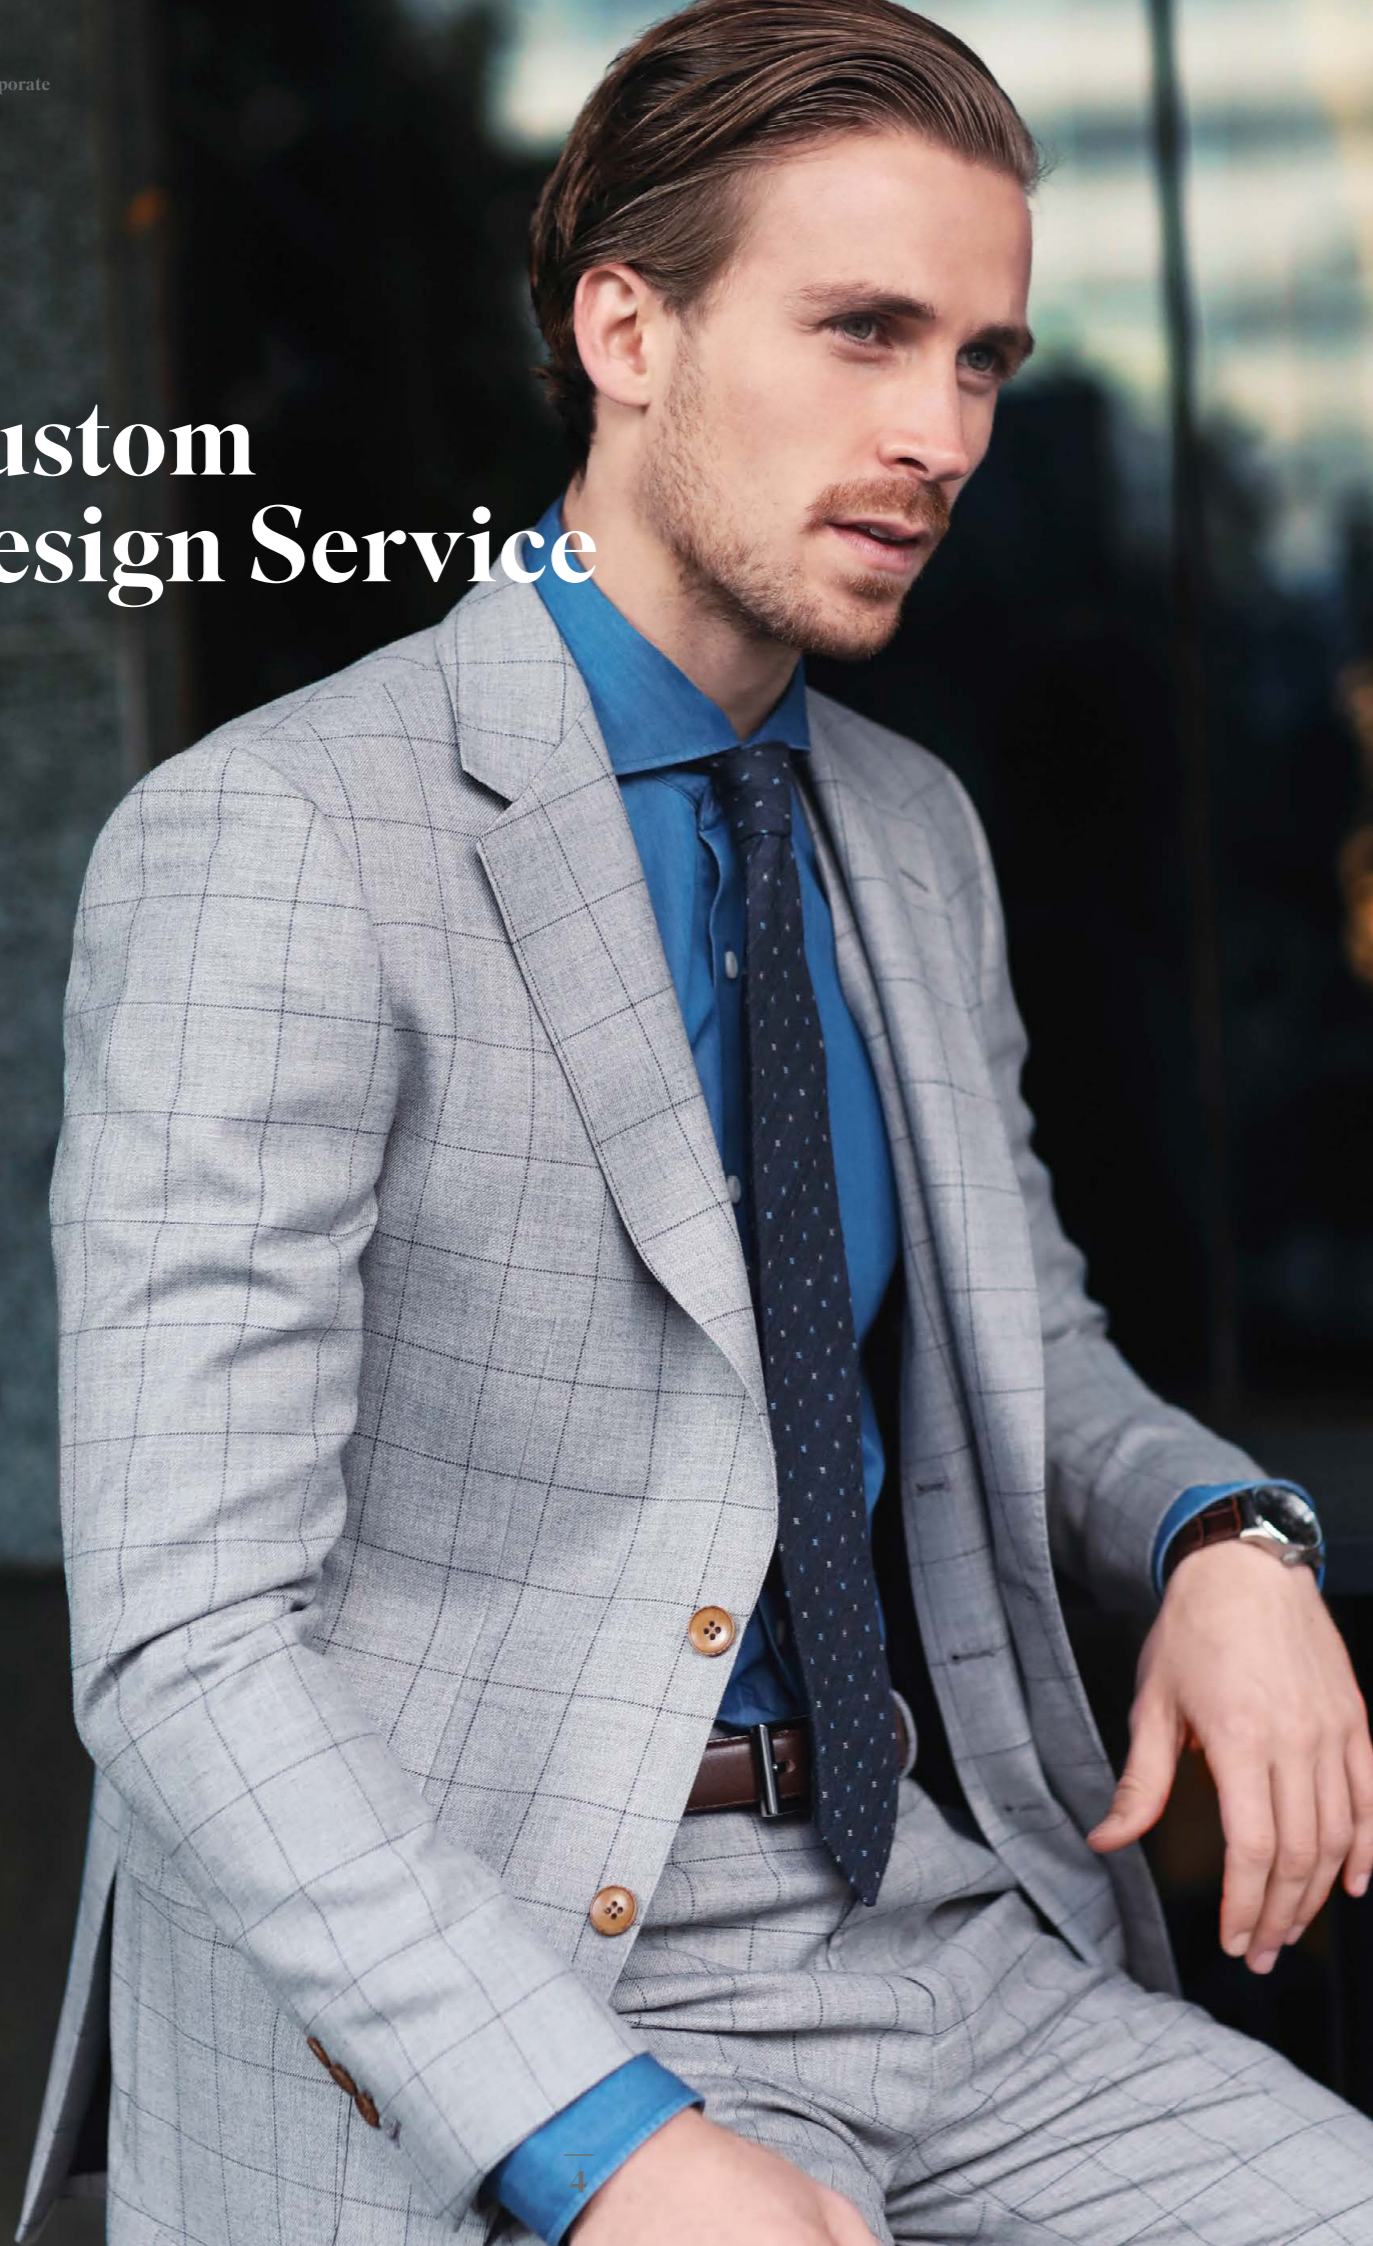

About Barkers

We've been doing this for a while now. In fact, we've been the store of choice for New Zealand men for decades (since 1972 actually) outfitting them for daily life, unforgettable milestones, and everything in between. We're pretty chuffed to have been doing this so long, and we still prioritise the good stuff like quality, understated style and true value as much as the day we started.

We've been using our know-how to fine tune the wardrobes and lifestyles of men around the country since 1972, when founder Raymond Barker opened "Raymond's". It was a time when Kiwi blokes were waking up to style (sideburns and the colour brown were popular) and our spot on Auckland's High Street was one of the first stores in New Zealand dedicated to men's fashion. We've come a long way since then – especially our sideburns. That store may be ancient history, but one of our newest flagships sits proudly across the road, joined by 26 stores nationwide.

Our Custom Tie Range

A tie can set your organisation apart, and show that you bring something utterly unique. At Barkers we've been creating superb quality neckwear for 40 years, and our brand new custom tie service gives you the chance to plug our expertise into your team.

Barkers Quality

We could say we're lucky to have a vertically integrated supply chain, but luck had nothing to do with it. Our hard work in this area means that we can liaise closely with our factory to ensure the utmost quality and the best results - we even take care of the little things like embroidery. Most of all, we're here to give you maximum return on your uniform investment. But if you are dealing in a larger scale then enquire about our B2B online ordering option.

Never out of stock fabric

We offer a huge array of fabric styles and colours to fill all your shirting needs. Our "never out of stock" collection means that you can be rest assured that shirts are ready and waiting for new staff and any quick turnarounds are never a problem.

Who We Work With

You may have heard of some of the groups we uniform, do the All Blacks ring a bell? We're pretty proud of that one. Thanks to Barkers, the All Blacks look like winners both on and off the field, and their uniforms take them around the world and back again. We outfit other sports teams too, like New Zealand Cricket and the Warriors, as well as businesses Silver Fern Farms, DEANE Apparel, Fisher and Paykel, Swannдри and Lion Nathan.
